

“FROM ONE BEGINNING TO ANOTHER”

A START-OF-YEAR CHAPLAINCY THOUGHT FOR THE MONTH: OCTOBER 2022 by Nick

disorientati
back to the

run away, it doesn't mean we try to go

I'm filming
home I'm s
as a husba
lives, even that's movi
uncertainty
these times

er for a few days and whenever I come graphs of me as a child, or as a student, or st, can often have a really nasty grip on our ly one direction that we can live our lives and when we come to these times of change and something which will keep us steady through

This is the thanking G
of transition
you are no
real strong
ones, but t
you have a
you the cor

cause its Harvest time, and Harvest above all is ived. And I want to suggest that at this moment e to the people who have helped you get where ed for you and supported you; that you have a s that you've had, even if they've been difficult oulded you into who you are now. And also that es, the secure and safe places which have given t beyond them into unknown situations.

At Harvest
Sacks. And
in his lifeti
when he co

s called 'Gratitude' and it was written by Oliver he died in 2015 of an incurable cancer. And he, nd disruption and change and setbacks, and yet o say this:

'I cannot pr
and been l
travelled a ominant feeling is one of gratitude. I have loved ave given something in return, I have read and ve been a sentient being, a thini.

970 Gajd... 1000 W... 1000 W...